Dear Mr. Casey:

I am enclosing herewith a copy of letter directed to you personally at the Central Intelligence Office on January 25, 1984.

This letter is self-explanatory and since we intend to be in Washington the week of March 25th, I would appreciate being able to tour the CIA facilities.

Thank you for writing Director Casey for whom I am responding.

I regret we cannot arrange for you to visit our Headquarters. The nature of our work precludes such visits, as I am sure you understand.

Enclosed are two publications of our Agency's history, functions, and organization. I think they will answer many of your questions.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Casey:

I was hoping to have had the pleasure of meeting with you last Monday evening at the Cabinet Reception involving the President's Committee. One of the reasons is that I would like to tour the CIA facilities with my seventeen year son during the Spring Briefing of the Republican Senatorial Inner Circle in March. I understand these meetings begin on the 25th and will be completed by noon of the 27th.

If it is convenient for your agency, the afternoon of the 27th or anytime on the 28th of March would be suitable for us.

I would very much appreciate your consideration concerning this matter.

Very truly yours,
